

Faces After Suicide Exhibition

Letter &/or Resource Submission Agreement

The Exhibition

The exhibition was created to support those who have lost someone to suicide and promote forward thinking on suicide awareness. <https://vimeo.com/manage/videos/602937651>

There are three components to the exhibit:

- A growing collection of ink drawings of suicide loss survivors, drawn during support group meetings.
- A growing wall of hand-written letters, written by suicide loss survivors to their deceased.
- A growing table of resources donated by national and global awareness / prevention organizations.

Letter Submission

Have you lost someone to suicide and would like to write a letter for the exhibition? Your letter will be added to the wall of letters at the next exhibition. Please read & complete the following:

- Write a one-page, hand-written letter to the person you lost to suicide on paper of your choosing
- Front side only
- Please write in your preferred language
- No typed or copied letters will be accepted
- Print and fill out Letter Submission Agreement; Letters will not be accepted if form is not completely filled out
- Mail agreement form & your letter to the following address:

Faces After Suicide

P.O. Box 3833

Kansas City, Kansas 66103

Resource Submission

Are you a prevention or awareness organization that would like your resources at our next exhibition? Your resources will be added to the table of resources for exhibition viewers to take away. Please read & complete the following:

- Print and fill out Resource Submission Agreement
- Mail agreement form & resources to the following address:
